

“Diwali celebrations fill the colors of love and enthusiasm in lives of children ”

Diwali Celebration - Let's add colors to each other's lives

A total of 223 children, along with 36 parents and members of the women's group from various classes celebrated Diwali. They created greeting cards and exchanged wishes for a happy Diwali. The children participated in the festivities with immense enthusiasm, enjoying group meals, creating rangoli, and dancing. In addition, Navsarjan celebrated Diwali with its staff members, who actively participated in the festivities by making colorful rangoli designs and play games. To show appreciation for the staff's hard work and dedication, Navsarjan distributed gifts. They engaged in the celebrations with great enthusiasm.
